

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:
CONTACT: Catherine Harden
Williams & Jensen
202-973-5952
www.williamsandjensen.com

Nick Karellas Joins Williams & Jensen

Washington, D.C. –Williams and Jensen, PLLC is pleased to announce Nick Karellas has joined the firm as a Principal. Mr. Karellas will focus on tax and trade issues for the firm.

“With tax reform being a top priority for Congress and the incoming Administration, Nick’s tax policy expertise and experience with the Ways and Means Committee will be very helpful for our clients” said CEO Susan Hirschmann.

Mr. Karellas most recently served as the Tax Counsel for the National Federation of Independent Business, where he worked on behalf of U.S. small businesses on tax issues. He also worked as Tax Counsel to Ways and Means member and former Vice Chair of the Republican Conference Representative Lynn Jenkins (R-KS), where he was responsible for the Congresswoman’s tax and trade priorities. From 2001 to 2005, Mr. Karellas worked for former Senator Kit Bond (R-MO).

Mr. Karellas holds a law degree from St. Louis University and a Master of Laws (LL.M) in Taxation from Georgetown Law.

About Williams and Jensen, PLLC

Williams and Jensen, PLLC is one of the few leading independent law firms in Washington with a practice focused primarily on lobbying. Since its founding in 1970, the Firm has helped companies and organizations in the U.S. and around the world influence legislation and public policy process in Washington. The firm’s record of winning in Washington has attracted a clientele of leading companies, trade associations, and institutions, many relying on the firm's services for more than three decades.

###