

The Embassy Guild

Please join the Embassy Guild for a moderated panel discussion entitled:

The Trump Administration and Trade: What to Expect

March 2nd, 6:00-7:30PM

Hosted by: The Embassy of Brunei Darussalam, 3520 International Court NW
Washington, DC 20008

Drinks and Reception: 6:00 to 6:30

Program: 6:30 to 7:30

In light of the importance of trade during the 2016 Presidential Campaign, the Embassy Guild welcomes the opportunity to host a discussion on what the diplomatic community can expect during the Trump Administration on this issue. From TPP to TTIP to NAFTA and everything in between, this event will provide an ideal opportunity to hear from trade experts on how they see the trade agenda developing in 2017.

Moderator:

Lorraine Hawley

Archer Daniels Midland, Director of International Government Relations,

Panelists:

Karan Bhatia

GE, Vice President of Global Government Affairs and Policy
Former Deputy U.S. Trade Representative

David Weller

Google, Head of Global Trade Policy
Former Deputy Assistant U.S. Trade Representative for China